Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Goldilocks. On the day our story begins, she had fibbed to her Mum about attending school and had gone for a walk in the woods instead. She came across a lovely, neat little house and, being the curious type, decided to see who was home.

The owners of the cottage were a family of bears. They had gone for a stroll that morning, as the porridge that Mummy Bear had made for Daddy Bear and Baby Bear was far too hot to eat, so they thought they would leave it for a short while to cool down. Porridge was their favourite, always made in their magic pot!

In their absence, Goldilocks explored their home. She ate some of their porridge, sat in their chairs, and fell asleep in the smallest bed in the house. When the bears returned, they noticed that someone had been in their home and couldn't believe it when they discovered Goldilocks in Baby Bears' bed!

After a lot of screaming and rushing around, Goldilocks grabbed the magic porridge pot and ran off into the woods. Mummy and Daddy Bear decided it was time to tell Baby Bear all about her 'coming of age' quest and told her to head out into the woods, find Goldilocks, retrieve the porridge pot and secure her status as a "grown up bear". She headed off, full of pride and feeling excited about her quest.

Goldilocks was out in the woods and was hiding, along with the pot, in amongst a particularly fine looking bunch of trees. However, Baby Bear had super strong sniffing sense and tracked her down pretty quickly. They didn't get along very well to start off with, understandably, but after a little while, they decided to team up and try and get rid of the Big Bad Wolf, for the sake of everyone in the forest. Unfortunately, while they were actually making their plan, the Big Bad Wolf himself had been sneaking up on them and, while they were distracted, had stolen the pot and run away!

Our two heroes realised this could mean disaster!

Baby Bear had heard many years previously that the Big Bad Wolf lived in a cave, so she used her super strong sniffing sense AND her fabulous eyesight to follow his scent and his pawprints all the way to the very cave in which he dwelled.....

As expected, he was there, cooking tons of porridge after finally figuring out the password. They decided to try and distract him by doing some beautiful singing. They chose 'One call away' by Charlie Puth as their special song and it worked like a charm. Their gorgeous voices distracted the Big Bad Wolf. They made the signs for 'Let's steal the pot' and sneaked in and did exactly that, before running away at top speed!

In all of the excitement, they hadn't realised that nobody had said "Stop little pot, stop", so the pot was still cooking porridge, some of which fell out in little blobs as they hurried away. This made it easier for the Big Bad Wolf to follow them back into the woods and catch up with them! He ate the rest of the porridge and it gave him 'high speed chase' power, which made him whiz off around the forest like a rocket. He didn't stop until he came to a small shed, in a little clearing in the forest. He looked inside and couldn't believe his eyes. There, having a romantic kiss and a hug, were Mummy Bear and Mr Whittick, a PE teacher from Yewstock College! They had been having a secret affair but, once Mr Whittick and the Big Bad Wolf set eyes on each other, they fell madly and instantly in love with each other. Mr Whittick dumped Mummy Bear and headed off into the sunset with the Big Bad Wolf to spend their lives together.....

Goldilocks, Baby Bear, Mummy Bear (who was feeling terribly guilty about her affair with Mr Whittick) and Daddy Bear decided to share both the porridge pot and their friendship and they all lived, Happily Ever After.....
